

Mending hearts, minds & families

Embrace Child Victims of Crime is the only national children's charity that focuses all its time on helping children, young people and families recover from the effects of crime. Our specialist services help them recover from their trauma, rebuild their lives and reach their full potential.

Support where it's needed

Everything we do aims to help children, young people and their families recover from their experiences of crime.

We provide face-to-face counselling and emotional support to child victims or witnesses of crime.

We provide telephone and online support to help young people understand their feelings, rebuild their self confidence and self esteem.

We give practical support to help families, whose lives have been devastated by crime, get back on their feet. We provide every day essentials from food and clothing vouchers to books, toys, mobile phones and tablets.

We provide family breaks and theme park days out to replace painful memories with happier ones.

We tailor our support to meet the needs of each child and family.

Registered Charity Number: 1166103.

Who do we help?

We believe all crime survivors have a right to receive the support they need to overcome their trauma, rebuild their confidence and self esteem and reach their full potential.

We prioritise the needs of young people and tailor our services to meet their individual circumstances to ensure they receive the right support at the right time.

“ Without Embrace, my child would still be sitting on her emotions and fears without the knowledge or confidence to speak or act upon them. Embrace has been invaluable to the healing of not only my child, but to our family too.

From a mum

We help families affected by all crimes including:

- Domestic violence
- Sexual abuse
- Neglect and child abuse
- Exploitation
- Violence and other serious crime
- The death of a parent, brother, sister or other close family member killed by serious crime.
